

Aurealis Pharma to Attend BioEquity Europe 2015 Conference, Vienna on May 19-20th 2015

Kuopio Finland, Basel Switzerland – May 13th 2015

Aurealis Pharma, a private biopharmaceutical company focused on chronic inflammation and oncology, announced today that CMO Dirk Weber will attend and present the company at BioEquity Europe 2015 Conference in Vienna, Austria to discuss potential partnerships and investment opportunities with companies and investor groups.

Dr. Weber stated, “We are pleased to attend the BioEquity Europe 2015 conference to have the opportunity to meet with companies and investor groups to discuss our novel multitherapy technology and its potential for collaborations as well as to evaluate the interest on the investor side. We believe that our new proof-of-concept data will create excitement and interest within the biotech investor audience.”

Aurealis Pharma is a Kuopio Finland and Basel Switzerland based privately-held biopharmaceutical company focusing on developing broadly applicable proprietary technology to effectively, safely and economically modulate and re-educate the distorted host immune microenvironment to proper state in chronic inflammation and cancer. Company’s technology is based on safe food-grade lactic acid bacteria delivering and secreting multiple human therapeutic proteins in target tissue facilitating protein/antibody combination therapy in a single product.

The 16th edition of BioEquity Europe, organized by BioCentury, EBD group and BIO , is a leading collaborative gathering of corporate investment communities with European life science companies. Over 260 companies will attend with investors seeking new investment opportunities and biotech companies looking to raise capital and potential collaborations. BioEquity Europe 2015 will be taking place at the Kursalon Vienna, May 19-20th 2015.
